Numb. 7596.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 22. to Saturday March 26 1737.

Dresden, March 20, N. S.

M. Osarowski, who was, after the Election of King Staniſlaus, Ambaſſadour from that Prince at the Court of France, and who has ſince been ſome Time here, is returned to Poland, very well contented with the Reception he has met with at this Court; having had a Regiment given him, and been named Lieutenant General, and preſented with the Order of St. Henry: He is certainly a Perſon of Merit, and has a great deal of Intereſt in his Country. The Vice Chancellor of Poland M. Malakowski, has received an Account from Babadach, the Winter Quarters of the Grand Vizier, that the Orders neceſſary for M. Stadnicki's publick Audience were given, and that the Porte had moreover ſent a Perſon to the Palatin of Kiovia, with Letters for King Auguſtus, acknowledging him King of Poland, which they expect here to receive very ſoon from the ſaid Palatin.

Copenhagen, March 23, N. S. A ſmall Frigate is fitted out and lies ready to ſail for Davis's Streights to protect the Daniſh Trade to Greenland, which they ſay here has been too much ſhared of late by foreign Interlopers. The Company eſtabliſhed here for carrying on that ſlender Commerce is reduced to one ſingle Merchant, Jacob Severin, at whoſe Requeſt the Frigate is now ſent out. Count Swerin, the Pruſſian Miniſter, has left this Place to return to Berlin; and has left a Secretary here, who in all Probability will continue to tranſact his Pruſſian Majeſty's Affairs at this Court. A Cartel between Denmark and Sweden is in Negociation and very near concluded. This has formerly been attempted without Succeſs, the Swedes inſiſting that Fugitives of all Profeſſions might be comprehended in it, and the Danes being willing to reſtrain it to thoſe only of the Military Way. It is upon this latter Foot that they are now like to agree. The Bank was opened here on the 11th Inſtant, the firſt Payment of the Subſcription for the Fund having then been brought in. People begin already to make uſe of it in every Way, and Bills circulate pretty currently; though as it is a new Thing, there is a Diffidence with ſome, which only Time and Experience can cure. The King of Denmark ſhews a great Inclination to encourage and ſupport it. Laſt Week his Majeſty went to the Palace of Charlottenburg, where the Bank at preſent is kept, and ſaw the Method of it, and paid Money for ſeveral Bills which he took out.

St. James's, March 25.

This Day M. Waſner, charged with his Imperial Majeſty's Affairs, had a private Audience of their Royal Highneſſes the Duke, the Princeſſes Amelia, Caroline, Mary, and Louiſa, all together; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Wine Licence Office, March 17, 1736-7.

His Majeſty's Commiſſioners for managing the Duty ariſing from Wine Licences, give Notice, that conſtant Attendance is given at their Office in Arundel-ſtreet in the Strand, for the Diſpatch of the Buſineſs thereof, on Tueſdays, Wedneſdays, Thurſdays and Fridays in the Forenoon, Holidays excepted.

Notice is hereby given, That the yearly General Meeting of the Proprietors in the Invention for raiſing Water out of all Mines, &c. by Fire, will be held, purſuant to their Articles, on Thurſday the 12*th Day of May next, at Apothecaries Hall in Black-Fryars, at Nine in the Morning.*
